SIX MEN, FOUR WOMEN QUALIFY FOR COLLEGE NATIONALS

Both Texas Wesleyan University men and women's table tennis teams will compete at the National Collegiate Table Tennis Championships, Apr. 8-10 in Fort Worth. On top of that, six men and four women from the Rams squad will also compete individually at the tournament.

On Mon. Mar. 6, the Association of College Unions International (ACUI) table tennis representative Willy Leparulo officially announced the final list of those competing. They include the following Texas Wesleyan University members:

Men's Nationals Qualifiers

1st Eric Owens, Sr.
2nd Ludovic Gombos, Fr.
3rd Courtney Roberts, Sr.
4th Dinko Kranjac, Jr.

Alternates Selected:

5th Carlos Chiu, Fr.
6th Abdul Khan, So.

Women's Nationals Qualifiers

1st Jasna Reed, Grad student
3rd Sabrina Worrell, Sr.
4th Johnese Evans, Grad student

Alternates Selected:

5th Kareema Styles, Sr.

The ACUI Region 12 Qualifier was held Sat. Feb. 25 at the University of Houston. The top four finishers in each event won into the tournament, while Chiu, Khan and Styles were alternates selected to compete at the College Nationals after placing fifth or sixth. Rams student athletes will participate in singles, doubles and mixed doubles events.
