Frequently Asked Questions

1. Do you have scholarships?

The two types of scholarships available are athletic scholarships and academic scholarships.

Athletic Scholarships

For a scholarship of 25% off tuition, you must have a confirmed USATT rating of 2250 if you are male or 2000 if you are female, within one year of applying and attending Texas Wesleyan University.

For a scholarship of 50% off tuition, you must have a confirmed USATT rating of 2400 if you are male or 2200 if you are female, within one year of applying and attending Texas Wesleyan University.

Scholarships are never guaranteed, but are awarded based upon availability.

For international students who do not have a USATT rating, it is at the discretion of the head coach to determine a player's ability level and possible athletic scholarship level.

All athletic scholarships are awarded solely at the discretion of the head coach.

2. What are the academic requirements playing for the Rams?

In order to compete on the team, student athletes must keep a minimum grade-point average (GPA) of a 2.0 on a 4.0 scale (A=4, B=3, C=2, D=1). Players are subject to academic progress reports throughout each semester, at the discretion of the head coach.

To be eligible to play for the university, undergraduate varsity student athletes must be enrolled in a minimum 9 credit hours and maintain a 2.0 GPA, while graduate students must be enrolled in a minimum 6 credit hours and maintain a 3.0 GPA. Junior varsity team members must be enrolled in a minimum part-time, half time, which means 6 hours for undergraduate and 4 hours for graduate students, and maintain the same GPA requirements as varsity team members.

3. What is the team's training schedule?

For the Spring 2006 semester, the Texas Wesleyan table tennis squad will hold table tennis training 5 days a week, 2½ hours per day. The team will also carry out weight training 2-3 days per week, depending on each student athlete's current physical condition.

4. What is college table tennis?

“The National Collegiate Table Tennis Association...maintains the eligibility and integrity of intercollegiate Table Tennis while providing the regulation of Varsity Table Tennis at the Collegiate Level in North America... For the 2004-2005 season, 104 schools competed in the 16 regional divisions, spanning the four corners of the country, from New England to Florida to California to Washington state” (<http://www.nctta.org>).

Texas Wesleyan University is a member of the NCTTA Texas Division, competing each semester in team matches against surrounding colleges and universities, including the University of Texas-Austin and Baylor University. The Rams qualify through the Texas Division to compete in the annual NCTTA National Collegiate Table Tennis Championships.

Texas Wesleyan University will host the 2006 Clear Channel NCTTA National Collegiate Table Tennis Championships, April 8-10, 2006. The Rams will be the two-time defending men's team champions coming into the event.

Please visit the official championships site for more information.
